SPECIAL TO

Cloak Buyers.

We make a deep cut in Prices of Cloaks out of our Large Stock on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 28th and 29th.

W. R. SELICK & CO.

NEW GOODS

and we are prepared to show the people a finer class of goods than ever. Past experience has taught us that the people appreciate the kind of goods we handle, and we shall continue to try to please them. We have now a very nice line of

Fancy Rockers, 85c to $50
Couches, $7.50 to $40
Bedroom Suits, $18 to $85
Parlor Suits, $40 to $140

but straight Hardware talk. You may think you'll not read it, but you will. The beauty of business is to do business in a business-like way—keep a good clean dollar-getting stock, sell at reasonable prices, treat customers politely, and rake in the cash when it comes your way. Its time of year to get in out of the cold—hover over the fire—and the need of the hour is

HEATING STOVES.

I have some solid comforts in the old reliable "ROUND OAK," which needs no song of praise to sound its worth. The GARLAND—closing grate, latest improved; highly ornamental and nicely trimmed in nickel—a beauty.

Detroit Stove Co's WOOD BASE BURNER, a late pattern—handsome, well made—a regular earth-warmer.

COOKING STOVES.

I have a complete line of best makes and latest styles. But don't come here to buy a cheap stove. I don't keep them. They don't suit my patrons. None but the best for me.

CUTLERY.

Let me jog your memory to the fact that I have the finest line of AMERICAN CUTLERY in this county—which includes the best makes of Razors—Pocket Knives for a regiment of whittlers, etc.

Local Department.

Richard Haigh of Kalamazoo is in town.

Mrs. Chas. Smith, Jr., leaves for her home in Hartford to-morrow.

Mrs. Ed. Phillips made a short visit at her sister's in Kalamazoo last week.

Don't forget the Republican speech at the Opera House on Thursday evening.

Mrs. S. S. Fifield of Ashland, Wisconsin, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Free.

Dr. W. J. Johnson returned last Wednesday from a visit to his parents in Toronto.

W. T. Welch went to Chicago Monday in the interests of the Woodman manufacturing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Prentice were in Paw Paw Monday, gathering up their wedding gifts.

635 baskets of corn from a little over five acres is what H. P. McFarlin of Waverly can show.

Miss Ida Malcolm of Dowagiac was the guest of Mrs. Fannie Mitchellson during the past week.

A. T. Anderson is minus a valuable cow which was found dead in the pasture one night last week.

Mrs. Riley Bangs is very much pleased with Geo. L. Bruner's work on the underpinning of her house.

Smoked glasses were in demand Thursday during the sun's eclipse which could be quite plainly seen.

Seth Allen of Kalamazoo is having an enforced vacation, caused by running a steel drill through his hand.

Quite a delegation of Kalamazoo relatives and friends came down to attend the Prentice-Richardson nuptials.

Fred. Wells returned on Saturday morning from Winona, Minn., where he has been at work the past summer.

W. F. Britton has gone to Allegan to take charge of the electrical plant there and Frank Pollard has taken his place here.

The Glendale brass band played some very sweet pieces on the street Friday afternoon. The boys are improving rapidly.

Messrs. Buskirk and Butler with their wives, took advantage of the fine weather of yesterday and drove over to Kalamazoo.

The ladies of the Free Baptist church will hold a pumpkin-pie social Tuesday evening, Nov. 1st, at the home of Martin Erkenbeck.

Mrs. H. M. Tittsworth of Aurora, Ill., Mrs. Cora Barber and Mrs. F. F. Clark last Saturday.

Advertised letters: W. P. Armstrong, Ed. Dennison, Mrs. P. M. Gray, H. B. Smith, G. Keller, Sen., Ed. A. Stephens, Mrs. Mary Warner.

All are cordially invited to attend a "brown" social at Mrs. A. C. Webb's on Wednesday evening, Oct. 26, for the benefit of Rev. Mrs. Barton.

J. Olmstead of Glendale has moved into the village and occupies the same house with his sister, Mrs. Ashley, leaving his son to carry on the farm.

Harry F. McNeil has returned from the South. He visited F. L. Osborne at St. Louis on his way home and reports Frank as having a fine position there.

Apples are an exceedingly scarce crop hereabouts and the few farmers who have any to sell, are smiling over the nice little prices they are bringing.

Farmers of this vicinity surely have no need to complain of this season with its abundant crops followed by a long, pleasant fall in which to garner in the last lingering sheaves.

Miss Mary O'Brien of Kalamazoo, Mrs. John Doyle of St. Joseph, Mrs. William Rhodes of Philadelphia, and a host of relatives from Hartford, came to attend the Finley-Bennett wedding.

C. L. Eaton brings us a campaign song that he picked up in his travels which is the best we have seen and we print it on the fourth page of this issue. We'd like to hear our glee club sing it.

Mrs. Delos Harrington has bought the old Simmons house and Mrs. John Reynolds is moving into the east part of the Drown residence.

Misses Mary and Maggie Bryar, who came home to attend the wedding of Miss Jennie Bennett, were obliged to return to their schools that same day.

Mrs. Mary Beddo has fitted up dress making rooms over Tyler's store and invites custom, promising that work shall be well, cheaply, and promptly done.

Senator Stockbridge is said to be specially sound on financial questions, and E. L. Hamilton has the reputation of a rattling campaign orator. Don't fail to hear them.

In looking over the Lecture Course arranged for our State Normal, we note that three of the entertainments are the same as ours, viz.—Shipp Brothers, Lotus Glee Club, and Dr. Henson.

The elocutionary contest at the First Baptist church last Friday evening resulted in the awarding of the silver medal to Miss Gertie Buck, though Miss Bertha Myers was very nearly her equal.

It seems to us that all our business houses should be willing to close up at least part of the day on legal holidays, and thus give their clerks a chance to celebrate; for, if all agreed, there would be no loss to any one.

Misses Selkirk and Goodale of Kalamazoo will be at the opera house on Friday, Nov. 11th, for the purpose of organizing a dancing school, and desire to meet the older people in the evening, the younger ones on Saturday morning.

Geo. Harbon and Mary Dean of Bangor were infected with the matrimonial fever that raged so high on Wednesday last and on that day applied to Justice Mason, who speedily made the twain one and sent them on their way rejoicing.

Alexander Austin of Waverly on Saturday brought in a cherry branch loaded with new leaves and blossoms that looked as healthy as any that ever bloomed in the balmy spring time. He says he has several trees in this condition.

The glory of the autumnal foliage has been something wonderful this year, and dwellers in prairie countries miss much of the poetry of the season by being deprived of this sight at "brave old autumn's emblazoned shield."

Mrs. H. C. Rowe of Mason and her sister, Mrs. John Loveridge of Marcellus, were visiting in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. Loveridge expect to start for California Nov. 13, and will spend the winter with friends in San Francisco, Oakland, and Fresno.

There will be a big Republican meeting at Longwell's Opera House on Thursday evening, Oct. 27, to be addressed by Senator F. B. Stockbridge and Hon. E. L. Hamilton, both of them fine speakers and well posted on the issues of the day. Let every Republican turn out to hear them.

The patient sufferer at the White House who has struggled for eight months with that dread disease consumption, succumbed to its power yesterday morning, leaving a large circle of grief-stricken friends, while the head of the nation is bowed down with sorrow over the loss of a loving helpmeet.

All of our citizens who went to Chicago unite in saying that it was a crush, a rush, and a roar, but that it was a grand opening after all. Those who went, so far as we know, are: Judge Heckert, J. E. Chandler, J. W. Free, John Ihling and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wildey, Ab and Elmer Wildey, Geo. Longwell, Jr.

James Slocum, the enterprising young editor of the Oakland County Advertiser and secretary of the Michigan Press Association, has invented a revolving type cabinet that promises to become highly popular with printers, especially in crowded city offices. It is only 35 by 36 inches square and 48 inches high, yet affords room for 34 cases of type, revolves easily, and when the cases are closed, is perfectly dust-proof.

T. J. Cavanaugh and W. R. Sirrine went to Allegan on Monday to respond to that absurd charge of horse-stealing; but, as was to be expected, the accusation was immediately withdrawn, the over-zealous prosecutor finding that he had no authority whatever for his action. If Prosecutor Newnham intended to gain votes by his zeal, we fear he will find, instead, the ignorance displayed in this case reacting mightily against him.

The firemen surely have reason to feel that the citizens of Paw Paw take due interest in their welfare, for their Columbian ball was the largest and most brilliant public party ever given here. 135 numbers were sold and at least 300 spectators gazed upon the kaleidoscopic picture presented by the dancers as they whirled merrily about to the inspiring strains of Buck & Geer's orchestra. Besides the fun, the boys are at least $100 richer than before.

Mrs. Fred Bassett goes to Chicago next week to join her husband, and Monday evening about a dozen of her lady friends gave her a very pleasant surprise by walking in just before dusk armed with all the necessary articles for a fine supper, when they proceeded to have matters all their own way for the rest of the evening. A merry time was enjoyed, and Mrs. Bassett has a beautiful china cracker-jar and celery dish as souvenir of this pleasant occasion.

Our village presented quite a metropolitan appearance on Friday evening, as the Dowagiac band discoursed sweet music well calculated to lure many people to their loudest on the Opera House stage, doing their best to entice an audience in to hear State Commissioner Robinson's platitudes, while between these two conflicting streams the steady Patrons of Husbandry wended their quiet way to the Grange, where a Ceres program was rendered.

The Ladies' Lecture Course at Lawton is now fully completed and comprises the following attractions:—The Berger-Pelham Co., Nov. 11; Mrs. Scott-Siddons in her dramatic recitals, Dec. 13; James Kay Applebee, "An Evening with Dickens," Jan. 13; Col. J. P. Sanford, "A Walk in Rome," Feb. 15; Edward P. Elliott, miscellaneous program, April 3.

Hubert Labadie's popular company of players who appeared here last week will again be seen in Paw Paw on Thursday and Friday evenings, Nov. 3 and 4, in two new plays. The performances should be well attended this time and especially so by the ladies for whose especial benefit they will be. The popular voting contest will be given each evening.

The ladies of the First Baptist church held the last meeting of their Missionary Society at the home of Mrs. A. T. Anderson, at which time the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. S. M. Chappell, Pres.; Mrs. Julia Freeman, Vice-pres.; Mrs. A. T. Anderson, Sec.; Mrs. Wm. Mason, Treas. Meetings will be held the first Saturday in each month.

Merry Wedding Bells.

On Wednesday, Oct. 19, 1892, our village resounded from morn till dewy eve with their silvery chime, and brides and grooms were plentiful as flowers in June.

At 9 a. m. St. Mary's church was the scene of a brilliant wedding ceremony, the high contracting parties to which were Miss Jennie Bennett of Paw Paw and Mr. Edward Finley of Hartford.

Never was a more ideal wedding group seen in Paw Paw than that which paced slowly down the aisle to the wedding march. The bride, beautiful in white Bengaline silk richly trimmed in lace, its folds shimmering through the misty bridal veil, leaned on the arm of the groom's brother, while Miss Mary Bryar, charmingly gowned in pale heliotrope silk followed with Mr. Finley. Three priests, looking very imposing in their embroidered robes, participated in the services, the marriage rite being first solemnized and immediately followed by Solemn High Mass. Fr. Mulcahy was the celebrant of the Mass, assisted by Fr. O'Brien, deacon of this diocese, and Fr. Joss, the sub-deacon. The musical part of the service was wonderfully sweet, including the Kyrie and Gloria by the choir, a solo by Mrs. Sadie Hathaway, a duet in which she was assisted by David Dillon, and a trio in which these two were joined by Fr. Marker.

At the completion of the ceremonies, the bridal party was accompanied to the house by half a hundred invited guests, to whom a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Finley took the two o'clock train for Chicago, expecting to return on Saturday and very soon begin house-keeping in their home at Hartford. A lavish display of costly and useful presents will prove a charming addition to this new home, and also recall the many loving friends who presented them.

At high noon of this same eventful day, the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. M. U. Richardson was thronged with guests, assembled to witness the marriage of Miss Nellie Richardson to Arthur S. Prentice of Kalamazoo.

Tasteful decorations of autumn leaves glowed brilliantly in the artificially lighted rooms, and in one corner of the front parlor a lace-canopied wedding tower bore the initial letters R. and P. Here the young couple took their stand, supported by Miss Anna Whitman and Mr. W. R. Selick. The bride was charming in a pale-blue silken gown garnished with chiffon, the tea roses in her dark hair forming a pleasing contrast, while the bridesmaid proved a lovely foil in her costume of pink crepon; and as Rev. James spoke the solemn words of the marriage ceremony, the bridal couple looked so fair and youthful that all united in a wish that the usual storms on the matrimonial sea might be few and far between in this case, and only serve by contrast to make their wedded bliss more complete.

After the usual congratulations, delicious refreshments were served and the bridal pair made preparations to take the two o'clock train; during their absence from the company, the rice was so industriously circulated among the guests, that their return was greeted with such a shower of snow-kernels as forced them to a brief adjournment in the vain hope that they might escape therefrom unobserved. But the vigilant company frustrated this design, the arrival of the hack making it imperative for them again to face the enemy, and they were finally whirled away with many streamers of white cloth fluttering from the bus and two old shoes hanging from the roof to herald the coming of a newly wedded couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice went to the World's Fair city, remaining until Saturday, and then returning to Kalamazoo where they will soon be settled in a home of their own.

The bride was the recipient of many lovely and expensive presents sent to her home here, with as many more awaiting her arrival at Kalamazoo, while several hundred dollars given in money will add many other articles of luxury to the many with which they will begin their new housekeeping.

There was a quiet wedding, with its usual accompaniments at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warner in Decatur on the evening of Oct. 19—and Nettie Langdon became the wife of John Burns according to the laws of the State of Michigan, Mrs. Anna Barton performing the ceremony. The new home had been made ready by the provident care and forethought of the bride-groom, and the new couple at once set up housekeeping in Paw Paw. The good wishes of many friends follow them into their new life, wishing them joy, and prosperity and peace.
